The Toolik Packing List is a fantastic resource for all things clothing and gear related. We will talk more and answer any questions about gear and supplies at the pre-trip meeting in May.

- B - If you don't already have a pair, I strongly recommend investing in a good pair of 8x42 binoculars. I have a pair of Vortex Diamondback HD 8x42 binoculars and I love them for general use, route-finding, and especially for bird-watching. They cost about $300 and they are very good optics for their size and weight. I wear them around my neck or on a chest harness all day without fatigue. REI has a great reference for choosing binoculars, and you can shop around locally in Fairbanks at Beaver Sports, REI, Prospector Outfitters,
